

which there shall be reasonable cause to apprehend that they will pass into that stage or state so as to generate or propagate such disease, and the town or any person acting for it shall not be liable for loss incurred by such destructions.

Person with contagious disease removed to hospital or pest-house liable to town for all expense, medical attention, etc.

SEC. 32. That in case any person be removed to any hospital or pest-house, as provided in the preceding section, the Board of Commissioners may recover before the Mayor or any justice of the peace the expense of the removal, support, nursing and medical attendance of such person, in an action by the town against such person, his guardian or representatives, as the case may require, and in case of the death of such party, and the town bears the expense of burial, such expense shall be recovered in an action against the proper representative of the deceased.

Power to stop, detain and turn back vehicles and passengers.

SEC. 33. The Board of Commissioners may take such measures as may be deemed best to stop and detain and turn back passengers and conveyances and persons within three miles of the town, the more effectually to prevent the entrance of such diseases as may be dangerous and contagious or infectious.

Resisting officers.

SEC. 34. That if any person shall threaten or resist the officers of the town in the performance of any duty or privilege conferred upon them, the person so offending shall pay to the town the sum of one hundred dollars, and be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Compulsory vaccination.

SEC. 35. In order to guard against the introduction or spread of small-pox in the town, the Commissioners may require all persons whose physical condition will permit it, to be forthwith vaccinated, if not already sufficiently vaccinated, and may prescribe regulations governing the procuring and producing of proper certificates from reputable physicians covering the provisions of this section, and may require personal examination of all persons, by designated physicians.

Abatement of nuisances.

SEC. 36. The Commissioners may require and compel the abatement of nuisances, and require the removal of the same, at the expense of the owner or occupant of the premises, whoever the same be.

Slaughter-house.

They may also prevent the establishment of slaughter-houses in the town, and if established, may remove the same, regulate, control the same, or the exercise of any offensive dangerous or unhealthful business, trade or employment in the town.

Offensive or dangerous business or trades.

Streets and alleys.

SEC. 37. That all streets and alleys open now in the town, and all public ways and roads, shall be and continue streets or alleys, as the case may be, until lawfully closed up by the Commissioners of said town, and it shall be a misdemeanor to obstruct the same unlawfully; and after notice from the Constable to remove the obstruction, each day the obstruction remains shall constitute a separate offense, for which the Commissioners shall impose suitable fines and penalties.

Obstruction a misdemeanor.

Penalty.

Constable to pay over fines and funds to treasurer.

SEC. 38. The Constable shall pay over to the Treasurer as often as once per week all fines and other funds collected by him, which should be paid to the Treasurer, and all fines imposed by the Mayor